

The image shows a close-up of a document, possibly a French administrative form, with a prominent stamp. The stamp is tilted and contains the text "RECEVU" at the top, followed by "06 JUN 2006" in large, bold letters. Below the date, there is smaller text that appears to be "M. [illegible]". The document itself has a header section with the title "DETAILLE DE COMPENSATIONS" and several fields for personal information, including "Nom", "Prénom", "Date de naissance", and "Sexe". The stamp is placed over the "Date de naissance" field.
