1. Property Interests in General. To sell, convey, assign, transfer, disclaim, exchange, purchase, acquire, hold, manage, control, vote, lend, license, lease, encumber by mortgage, pledge or in any other manner, and otherwise deal with and exercise any right of ownership with respect to all or any part or interest in property of every nature whatsoever, real, personal or mixed, tangible or intangible, legal or equitable, and wheresoever situated, which I do now, or may at any time hereafter, own, possess or be entitled to (hereinafter referred to as a "Property Interest"), at such prices and on such terms and conditions as my attorney shall deem proper or expedient, and to make, execute and deliver all documents and instruments necessary or appropriate in connection therewith;
2. Gift Transfers to Family. 4. Real Estate Instruments. To make, execute, acknowledge and deliver all deeds, conveyances, plats, trust deeds, trust deed notes, mortgages, promissory notes, leases, real estate contracts, bills of sale, assignments, certificates and written instruments of every kind and nature pertaining to real property, regardless of the duration of the legal obligation created by any such instrument;

15. Litigation. To institute, prosecute and defend, for me and in my name or on my behalf as plaintiff or defendant, any legal proceedings which my attorney may deem appropriate or which may be brought against me, and to accept service of process in any such action, and to settle, compromise and adjust, upon such terms and conditions as may be appropriate or expedient, any such suits, proceedings, claims or causes of action; and

16. Miscellaneous. To do all other acts, whether hereinabove expressly described or not, which may be legally delegated by a power of attorney, it being my intention that the terms of this power of attorney shall be construed liberally in favor of my said attorney, with all such acts that my attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof being hereby ratified and confirmed by me.

If the individual named above as my attorney fails or ceases to serve as my attorney by reason of death, incapacity or resignation, then I hereby make, constitute and appoint Alene B. Frandsen, now residing in Orem, Utah, as substitute attorney-in-fact, with all the rights, powers and authority granted herein.

My attorney shall exercise this power of attorney as I may direct from time to time or as my attorney, in such attorney's sole and complete judgment and discretion, shall deem necessary, expedient, wise, proper or appropriate for my benefit or as my attorney shall consider would be my desire or intent, with a general view to preserving and protecting my properties and interests and not to undertaking new business ventures or entering into investments of substantially greater risk than has hitherto been my custom. If I have designated two or more individuals as my attorney-in-fact, all such persons so named must be in agreement in order to exercise this power of attorney. All such persons must sign any instrument or document purporting to exercise this power of attorney and their signatures shall constitute conclusive evidence of the agreement of said persons to so act. In the interpretation and application of this document, Utah law shall be controlling. Also, the paragraph headings used herein are for convenience only and shall not control the scope of any paragraph.

This power of attorney shall be effective immediately upon the execution hereof and shall remain in full force and effect until the receipt by my attorney or persons dealing with my attorney of a written revocation or superseding power of attorney signed by me. This power of attorney shall not be affected by my disability, incompetence or incapacity. Any previous durable power of attorney given by me to my said attorney or any other person is hereby superseded and revoked. All persons dealing with my attorney may rely on a photostatic copy hereof without requiring the production of this original power of attorney.

In addition, if a conservator or other fiduciary is to be given charge of my property pursuant to court order, I hereby nominate the aforementioned individual or individuals appointed to serve as my attorney(s)-in-fact, in the same order of succession as set forth above, to serve also as the conservator(s) of my property or other fiduciary. No bond or security shall be required of any such guardian, conservator or other fiduciary.

Section 1 Limitation Upon Directors' Liability To the fullest extent permitted by the Act, as the same now exists or may hereafter be amended, no director of this Corporation shall be personally liable to this Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to this Corporation or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for actions under Section 16-10a-841 of the Act for which liability may not be limited, or (iv) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit

Section 2 Amendment or Repeal of Limitation Any amendment or repeal of this Article VI or adoption of any other provision of the Articles of Incorporation which has the effect of increasing director liability shall operate prospectively only and shall not affect any action taken, or failure to act, by a director of this Corporation prior to such amendment, repeal, or other provision becoming effective

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1 Right to Indemnification Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer or trustee of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such Proceeding is alleged action or inaction in an official capacity as a director, officer or trustee or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer or trustee, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Act, as the same exists as of the date hereof or as may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide both prior to such amendment and as of the date hereof), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer or trustee and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators, provided, however, that, except as provided in Section 2 hereof, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such Proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board. The right to indemnification conferred in this ARTICLE VII shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in connection with any such Proceeding in advance of its final disposition if (a) the director or officer furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct described in Section 16-10-902 of the Act, (b) the director or officer furnishes to the Corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on his or her behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he or she did not meet the standard of conduct, and (c) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the this Article VII, the Act or otherwise. The Corporation may, by action of the Board, provide indemnification to employees, individuals serving on committees of the Corporation and agents of the Corporation with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of directors, officers and trustees.

Section 2. Right of Claimant to Bring Suit. If a claim under Section 1 of this ARTICLE VII is not paid in full by the Corporation within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in connection with any Proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any is required, has been tendered to the Corporation, and as to any such other action as to which it shall not be a defense) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the Act for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including the Board, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct under the Act, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including the Board, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

Section 3 Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in connection with a Proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this ARTICLE VII shall not be (and they shall not be deemed to be) exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of this Articles of Incorporation, by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise

Section 4 Impairment of Existing Rights Any repeal or modification of this ARTICLE VII shall not impair or otherwise affect any rights, or obligations then existing with respect to any state of facts then or theretofore existing or any action, suit or proceeding theretofore or thereafter brought based in whole or in part upon any such state of facts.

Section 5. Construction and Presumption. This ARTICLE VII shall be liberally construed in favor of indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in connection with a Proceeding in advance of its final disposition and there shall be a rebuttable presumption that a claimant under this ARTICLE VII is entitled to such indemnification and the Corporation shall bear the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that such claimant is not so entitled to indemnification

Section 6. Severability If any provision of this ARTICLE VII shall be deemed invalid or unenforceable, the Corporation shall remain obligated to provide indemnification and advance expenses subject to all those provisions of this ARTICLE VII which are not invalid or unenforceable

VIII.

AMENDMENT

These Articles may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares outstanding at a meeting called for that purpose upon giving of not more than thirty (30) days nor less than ten (10) days notice to all such shareholders of record, provided, however, that such meeting may be called without notice when notice is waived in writing by all shareholders of the Corporation.

4 All prior Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, together with all amendments thereto, are superseded in their entirety by the provisions of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation.

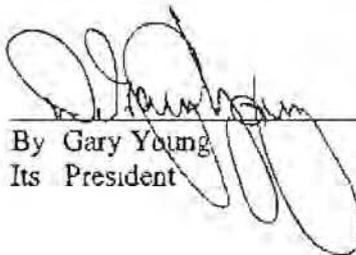

5. The Board of Directors of the Corporation has recommended this Amendment and Restatement of the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation to the shareholder of the Corporation. The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation set forth herein was approved by the unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors effective as of the 28th day of November, 2012.

6 On the date the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation was approved by the shareholders of the Corporation, the Corporation had one hundred thousand (100,000) shares of

All of the one hundred thousand (100,000) shares of the Corporation's voting common stock outstanding at the time of adoption of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation were cast in favor of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation pursuant to the unanimous written consent of the shareholders effective as of the 28th day of November, 2012, and no votes were cast against, as set forth below

Class of Shares	Number of Shares Voted for Amendment	Number of Shares Voted Against
