

Figure 1: A bar chart showing the distribution of a variable across two groups. The x-axis represents 15 categories, and the y-axis represents frequency. The first group (left) has bars of varying heights, with the tallest bar at the 7th position. The second group (right) has a single tall bar at the 14th position and a few shorter bars at the 15th position.