

The United States Constitution is the supreme law of the land. It is the foundation of the government of the United States. The Constitution is the result of the efforts of the Framers, who met in 1787 to create a new government for the United States. The Framers were men of great vision and courage, who sought to create a government that would be fair and just to all citizens. The Constitution is the result of their efforts, and it is the foundation of the government of the United States today.
