

what you can do

Education

• Read and understand your vehicle's owner's manual. If you don't have one, contact your dealer or the manufacturer.

• Make sure you understand how to use your vehicle's features. If you don't know how to use a feature, ask a friend or family member to show you.

• Don't drink and drive. Alcohol impairs your judgment, coordination and reflexes. It's illegal to drink and drive in most states. If you've been drinking, call a cab or take a ride with a designated driver.

• If you're driving a car with a child safety seat, make sure it's installed correctly. Check the manufacturer's instructions and have a professional install it. If you're not sure if it's installed correctly, take it to a certified child passenger safety technician for inspection. You can find one at www.safercar.gov.
