

THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON FROM 1630 TO 1800

The city of Boston, founded in 1630, has a rich and varied history. It was the first city in North America to have a city government, and it was the first city to have a city seal. The city was founded by a group of Puritans who had fled from England in search of religious freedom. They established a colony on the eastern shore of Massachusetts Bay, and they named it Boston in honor of their hometown in England. The city grew rapidly, and it became one of the most important cities in the colonies. It was the center of the American Revolution, and it was the site of many important events, including the Boston Tea Party and the Battle of Boston. The city has a long and proud history, and it continues to be one of the most important cities in the United States.
