

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress.

2. The second part is a report on the state of the Union, which includes a summary of the administration's policies and a list of the major accomplishments of the year.

3. The third part is a report on the state of the economy, which includes a summary of the economic conditions and a list of the major economic indicators.

4. The fourth part is a report on the state of the foreign relations, which includes a summary of the foreign policy and a list of the major foreign events.

5. The fifth part is a report on the state of the military, which includes a summary of the military operations and a list of the major military events.

