The image displays a collage of 12 pages from a 1970s-era financial document, likely a Form 990. The pages are arranged in a grid-like fashion, showing various sections of the form. The document is dated 1970 and includes a signature at the bottom right.

The visible sections include:

- Statement of Financial Position: This section shows the organization's assets, liabilities, and net assets. It includes a table with columns for 'Assets', 'Liabilities', and 'Net Assets'. The total assets are listed as $1,000,000, with total liabilities at $500,000, resulting in net assets of $500,000.
- Statement of Operations: This section details the organization's income and expenses. It includes a table with columns for 'Income', 'Expenses', and 'Net Income'. The total income is listed as $1,000,000, with total expenses at $500,000, resulting in a net income of $500,000.
- Statement of Financial Changes: This section shows the changes in the organization's net assets over the year. It includes a table with columns for 'Beginning Balance', 'Additions', 'Deductions', and 'Ending Balance'. The beginning balance is $500,000, with additions of $500,000 and deductions of $0, resulting in an ending balance of $1,000,000.
- Other Sections: The collage also shows other parts of the form, including the 'Statement of Financial Position' for the previous year, the 'Statement of Operations' for the previous year, and the 'Statement of Financial Changes' for the previous year.
