  - b) To subscribe or promote subscription, buy, possess, hold, acquire by any other means and sell, negotiate, guarantee, assign, exchange and transfer by any other means, capital shares, credits, obligations, securities, debentures, certificates of partnership and any other title or document of any private, public or semi-public corporation or judicial person and while being owner of same, possess and exercise all the corresponding rights and privileges.

- c) To execute all kinds of contracts, for itself or others and specially trust contracts and for the administration of stocks, credits, obligations, securities, debentures, certificates of partnership and any other title or document of any corporation or juridical persons.

d) To purchase or sell, charter, sail or operate ships and vessels, as well as to execute all kinds of marine contracts.

e) Purchase or sell personal properties or real estate, as well as any kind of merchandise on his its account or for third parties.

f) To do and perform all and everything necessary for the attainment of any of the purposes stated in its Certificate of Formation or any amendment of the same or whatever is necessary or convenient for the protection and benefit of the corporation; and,

g) To carry on any lawful business whether or not such business is set forth in its Certificate of Formation or in any amendment thereof.

6. The Limited Liability Company shall have all such powers as are permitted by law for the time being in force in the State of Delaware, to perform all acts and engage in all activities necessary or conducive to the conduct or attainment of the objects of the company.

7. There are no limitations on the authority of members of the company to bind the company.

8. The personal liability of all the members of the LLC is hereby eliminated to the fullest extent allowed as provided by the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, as the same may be supplemented and amended.
