GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Offers are submitted without engagement. Offers are made on basis of the current price. Final invoicing will be based on prices valid at the time of delivery, unless otherwise agreed upon.

A verbal agreement will be binding only if and insofar it has been confirmed in writing or/and insofar it has been fulfilled by shipment and invoicing of the goods. Variations from these conditions, especially deviating stipulations by the buyer, shall only be valid after confirmation in writing by the seller.

2. The delivery dates are not binding but are merely given as an indication, unless expressly agreed upon otherwise.

3. We shall be relieved of our obligation to supply as long as the buyer is in arrears with payment, this without notice and without prejudice to the seller's right of compensation. If any doubt exists as to the solvency of the buyer, we reserve the right to halt deliveries until satisfactory securities have been provided or advance payment has been made.

Non-fulfillment of the terms and conditions of this contract shall be considered as «breach of contract», the buyer-contractant will be held liable for all the costs that result of this non-performance.

Force majeure, breakdowns, shortage of labour, power or raw-materials, strikes, lock-outs, transport-holdups and official restraint shall extend delivery dates for a reasonable period of time. They shall also entitle us to withdraw from the unfulfilled sections of the contract without incurring any liability.

4. All shipments are effected at the buyer's risk. Route and means of transportation shall be determined by the seller. Buyer's wishes shall be taken into consideration as far as possible. The most recent version of the «INCO-terms», issued by the International Chamber of Commerce, shall apply, except where they are different from the conditions of sale.

5. Any complaints concerning quality or quantity must be presented at the latest within seven calendar days after delivery of the goods in general.

In particular, in case of FAS/FOB-shipments, claims must be presented prior to delivery on quay/board of the vessel in the port of shipment.

In case of CFR/CIF-shipments, claims must be presented at the latest seven days after arrival of the vessel in the port of unloading.

A complaint or any other invoice-discussion can never exonerate the debtor from payment.

For claims that were presented in good time and considered to be justified, the seller reserves the right to replace or partly replace damaged goods or to partly or in full refund the invoice amount. All other and exceeding damages are herewith expressly rejected.

6. The goods remain property of the seller until full payment of the related buyer's invoice.

The buyer is obligated to participate in all actions the seller undertakes to guard his interests. The buyer is expected and obligated to inform the seller of any action which may have a negative impact on the seller's rights of ownership.

7. The prices of this contract are based on the rate of exchange on the date of contract.

Any loss as a consequence of the volatility in exchange rates is on buyer's account.

Any increase in freight, customs or duties subsequent to the conclusion of this contract is for account of the buyer.

8. The buyer commits himself to collect/accept all documents when presented by the bank/seller's agents. Further, he will undertake all measures necessary for the immediate transfer of the funds.

9. Any amounts that remain unpaid on due date, incur interest at a rate of two percent per annum above the central bank rate of discount of the country where the invoice was issued, without further notice.

10. If, within a period of 15 days starting from the forwarding by registered mail of a notice of default, the amount due has not been paid, the amount will, in addition to the interests stipulated in art. 9, automatically be increased by 15% as contractual and irreducible damages for administration expenses and commercial perturbations.

11. LAW AND DISPUTES.

The sales contract will be governed by the Belgian law.

All judicial suits must be brought before the Commercial Court of Antwerp.
