

A photograph of a document, likely a receipt or invoice, featuring two prominent stamps. On the left is a circular stamp with the text "CASA DE MONEDA" around the top edge and "CASA A" in the center. A handwritten number "472" is visible to the left of the stamp. To the right of the circular stamp is a rectangular stamp with the text "CAJA Nº 100" at the bottom. Above this rectangular stamp, there is a smaller rectangular stamp with the text "EL PAGO". The document also contains various other markings, including a date "1972" and some illegible text.
