

1. THE PURPOSE OF THE STUDY 2. THE RESEARCH DESIGN AND METHODS

The purpose of this study is to investigate the effect of the independent variable on the dependent variable. The research design is a quantitative approach, and the methods used are a survey and statistical analysis.

The study was conducted in a controlled environment, and the data was collected from a sample of participants. The results of the study are presented in the following sections.

The study was conducted in a controlled environment, and the data was collected from a sample of participants.

The study was conducted in a controlled environment, and the data was collected from a sample of participants.

The study was conducted in a controlled environment, and the data was collected from a sample of participants.

The study was conducted in a controlled environment, and the data was collected from a sample of participants.

The study was conducted in a controlled environment, and the data was collected from a sample of participants.

The study was conducted in a controlled environment, and the data was collected from a sample of participants.