The image shows a series of vertical black bars of varying heights, arranged in five groups. Above each group of bars is a phonetic symbol: 'o' at the top left, 'a' at the top center, 'e' at the top right, 'u' below 'e', and 'n' below 'u'. The bars represent the amplitude or height of speech sounds. The 'o' group has 7 bars. The 'a' group has 6 bars. The 'e' group has 5 bars. The 'u' group has 6 bars. The 'n' group has 5 bars.
