1. PROBLEM STATEMENT: The problem is to design a control system for a plant with a transfer function $G(s) = \frac{1}{s^2 + 2s + 1}$ such that the system is stable and the output follows a reference signal $r(t)$ with zero steady-state error. The control system should be designed using the root locus method.

Figure 1. The effect of the concentration of the Agrobacterium suspension on the transformation efficiency of Agrobacterium strains. The Agrobacterium strains were grown in YEA medium for 24 h at 28 °C. The cell concentration was adjusted to 10⁸ cells/ml. The cells were then mixed with the plant tissue and the transformation efficiency was determined. The results are shown as the mean ± SD of three independent experiments. The asterisk indicates a significant difference (p < 0.05) between the two groups.
